CENSUS OF ENGLAND AND WALES, 1901

INSTRUCTIONS

TO THE

CLERKS EMPLOYED IN CLASSIFYING THE OCCUPATIONS AND AGES OF THE PEOPLE.

1. The OCCUPATIONS of the People are to be abstracted in conjunction with AGES from the Enumeration Books.

(a.) Children under 10 years of age are not to be abstracted.

(b.) "Scholars," "Students," "Pupils," and all others without specified Occupations under 15 years of age are not to be abstracted.

(c.) Those Females only are to be abstracted who are returned as following or as having followed some specified Occupation, or as living on private means, or, if over 15, as being Students.

(d.) All Males, with the exception of those mentioned in (a) and (b), are to be abstracted, whether they are returned as with or without specific Occupations.

2. The OCCUPATIONS, many thousands in number, under which persons are likely to be returned in the Enumeration Books, are grouped together under three hundred and eighty-three Headings, which correspond with those in the Abstract Sheet. A list of the Headings classified under twenty-three Orders, with their Sub-orders, is given on pages 2-25, and the Orders and Sub-orders themselves appear on pages 1-4.

The INDEX at the end of the book contains the occupational names in alphabetical order, with a statement against each as to the Heading to which it is to be referred, and the Order and Sub-order in which such Heading will be found.

3. The ABSTRACT SHEET contains all the three hundred and eighty-three Headings, arranged in three divisions in the order of classification, except that part of Order 1, Sub-order 4 of Order 23, and the whole of Order 23, are included in the first division. Columns or spaces are provided for abstracting the Occupations under ten groups of ages, for distinguishing Employees, Workers, &c., and for showing those persons who are working "At Home" in certain trades or industries. A Supplementary Sheet is provided for the Headings printed in italics, and the ticks should, except when otherwise directed, be made on that Sheet, the totals of such ticks only appearing on the principal Sheet.

(a.) There are separate Sheets for Males and Females, printed in black and red ink respectively. The arrangements of the Headings in the Abstract Sheets are similar for the two sexes; and, in order to avoid crowding the space for the Heading, the term applicable to one sex alone is given (e.g., Fisherman), but must be understood to include the term applicable to the other sex (e.g., Fish-woman).

- (b) The occupation and age of (1) every child ticked to the age columns "10, 11, 12, 13," and (2) of every person classed under either "Retired from Business (not Army, Navy, Church, Medicine)" or "Pensioner" must be written in the space respectively provided for the purpose in the Supplementary Sheet. In those cases, therefore, every tick on the Abstract Sheet must have a corresponding entry on the Supplementary Sheet.
- (c) There are four columns for the separate abstraction of those returned as Employer, Worker, Neither (i.e., persons working single-handed on their own account), and Others (i.e., persons concerning whom the requisite information is not given or is not determinable). There are no columns for this purpose for the headings in the first division of the Sheet; in the second and third divisions such separate abstraction is required in the case of all Headings against which the necessary spaces are provided, and a second tick must be made for each person in the appropriate column.
- (d) When a person is described as working "At Home" a tick must be made in all cases where a space is provided for the purpose. It will be noticed that this is necessary in two headings only in the first division, viz., "Laundry and Washing Service" and "Machineist, Machine Worker (unclassified)," and that in a large number of cases in the second and third divisions the particulars are not required.

4. The following rule is to be observed in the preliminary process of Coding:—

Subject to paragraph 1, find for each person in the Enumeration Book, by means of the Alphabetical Index or the Classified List, the proper Heading to which his or her occupation should be referred; and then mark it in red ink in the manner indicated by the CODE FOR CORRESPONDENCE SHEET, which contains all the Headings in the order of the classification.

After having carefully studied and become familiar, by some practice, with the Classified List, the Coder will generally be able to refer the Occupation to the proper Heading without turning to the Alphabetical Index. But he must use this until he has obtained such practical familiarity, and in all cases when he is in doubt.

From time to time the Clerk will come upon Occupations which are not to be found in the Index. Sometimes he will have no difficulty in dealing with these and finding a proper place for them, namely, when the Occupation mentioned is clearly some branch of, or some slightly different name for, an Occupation which is in the Index. Common sense in such cases will guide him. But in other instances he will come on Occupations which are neither themselves in the Index nor readily referable to any to be found there. In such case, or in any case where he is in doubt or sees reason for deviating from the Index, he must apply for direction to his Superintendent.

5. In the succeeding process of Abstracting, the Clerk will first put a tick in the proper age column against the Heading in the Abstract Sheet, as indicated by the coding in the Enumeration Book, and must duly abstract all the particulars mentioned in paragraph 3. The ticks must be made with regularity and accuracy. It must be understood that, although the coding has been done to guide him as to the proper classification of the occupation, he should in all cases satisfy himself that the coding is in conformity with the rules, and should he discover any error, he must correct it and keep a record of the correction; and an extra allowance will be made for all such entries.

The Abstracter is recommended to study the Classification and the Abstract Sheet carefully, and then to familiarize himself with the general system of classification and its details. The more carefully he studies the Classification and the Abstract Sheet, and the more completely he fixes them in his memory, the more rapidly and accurately will he be able to do the work of abstraction; and, as the remuneration will be in proportion to the amount and accuracy of the work done, the larger will be his earnings.

He is also recommended to be content at first to work slowly and carefully, until he shall have obtained a good practical knowledge of the process; for, though by so doing he will at first get through a comparatively small amount of work, and may therefore be earning at first but small remuneration, he will find that, by following this method, he will very soon acquire a power of working with great rapidity and accuracy; and, as accuracy as well as speed is taken into account in determining the rate of pay, he will eventually earn much more than by attempting too rapid a rate of work before he is thoroughly familiar with its details.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TICKING IN CERTAIN SPECIAL CASES.

6. A person is often returned as following several Occupations. The rule in such case is to select that Occupation which appears the main or most important one. If there be none such, the first of the several Occupations is to be taken and the others are to be ignored.

7. Persons without any specified Occupation or Unemployed are to be referred to Order II; but those returned as ordinarily following any Trade or Occupation, although out of employment, are to be ticked in the Trade or Occupation stated.

(a.) If they be stated to have retired from any profession or trade, or to have formerly followed any Occupation but have now ceased to do so, they must be placed in the heading "Retired from Business"; with the exception of Officers in the Army and the Navy, Clergymen, and Medical Men, who, though they be stated to have retired, are to go to their former profession. Persons noted as Retired will also be coded according to their former calling (see also Instructions (b), paragraph 5). Inmates of Lunatic Asylums and Almshouses, whose Occupations before admission to these institutions are stated, are nevertheless to be considered as "Retired," and the same is to be the rule with paupers in Workhouses of over 65 years of age. But paupers in Workhouses, if under 60, and prisoners, are to be ticked under their stated Occupations.

(b.) Persons returned as living on their own means, or as holders of property in land, houses, funds, &c., or by any term that implies independent means, are to be classified under "Living on own Means." Some persons, however, though strictly speaking they are only returned as owners of property, are so generally engaged in working their property that they must be referred to the specific Occupation implied in the return, e.g.,

Ship, Tug, &c., Owner	to Navigation Service (on shore).
Quarry Owner, Proprietor	Doers in Stone, &c.
Mine Owner	Do Mine—Owner, &c.
Cab, Coach—Owner, Proprietor	Livery Stable Keeper, &c.

In this matter common sense must be the guide, but, if in any doubt, the Abstracter should apply to his Superintendent.

(c.) All persons returned as living on or in receipt of Pensions are to be included under "Pensioner."

8. Not uncommonly persons return themselves in the Occupation column by letters, such as B.A., M.A., D.D., M.R.C.P., &c., &c. Some of these imply specific Occupations; thus D.D. only belongs to clergymen or ministers, M.R.C.P. and M.D. only to medical men, &c. In such cases the tick must be made in the Occupation implied. But B.A. and M.A., D.C.L., and many other letters, imply no specific Occupations; the ticks must be made accordingly under "Others" in Order II. The Clerk should acquaint himself with the more common of such literal returns, so as to be able to deal with them, but in case of coming upon any with which he is unacquainted, must apply to his Superintendent for direction.

Officials of Foreign Governments, such as Ambassador, Attaché to Embassy, Consul, Foreign Officer, &c., &c., are to be referred to "Others" in Order II.

9. Makers and Dealers. It is of the utmost importance that, so far as the nature of the returns will allow, Manufacturers, or persons engaged in manufactures, should be distinguished from Dealers and their assistants, and the Abstracter will observe that special headings are provided on the Abstract Sheet for this purpose. For instance, there are separate headings, "Boot, Shoe—Maker" and "Boot, Shoe, &c.—Dealer," and care must be taken that a man who is evidently a Dealer only should not be classified as a Manufacturer.

10. Merchants dealing in some stated commodity, e.g., Tea Merchant, Coal Merchant, Rag Merchant, Chinaware Merchant, &c., are to be classed by the nature of the article in which they deal. But Foreign Merchants, or Merchants designated by the name of a country, as East India Merchants, China Merchants, &c., &c., are to be ticked under the heading "Merchant (commodity undefined)" (Order 3, Suborder 1), and persons returned simply as Merchants, without further specification, are to be treated in a similar manner. Merchants' trade servants, other than General Labourers, should be placed in the Dealers of the various trades, and not to the manufacturers.

11. Agents and Brokers as a rule are to be referred to "Broker, Agent, Factor" (Order 3, Sub-order 1), but the following are exceptions, and should be dealt with as indicated :—

Advertising Agent	...	...	Newspaper Agent, Order 17, Sub-order 2.
Advertisement Agent	...	...	...

Theatrical Agent	...	...	Theatre Service, Order 3, Sub-order 7.

12. A Farmer's Son or close male relative, aged 15 or upwards, and living in the farmer's house, and not described as of any other specific Occupation, must be regarded as engaged in agriculture, and ticked to the Heading provided in Order 7, and female relatives described as Farmer's Daughter, &c., should be referred to this heading, but the females returned without specific Occupation are not to be ticked at all.

- (a.) All persons returned as forming band, whether the band be their own or hired, are to be placed to "Farmer."
- (b.) Cooks, Housemaids, General Servants, and others in farmhouses, whose duties are of a household character, must be regarded as Domestic Servants; but all other ~~Farm~~ Servants, including Dairymaids, are to be referred to the various headings of Order 3.

13. Carries or Waggoners, if returned as engaged on farms or in agriculture, are to be ticked to "Agricultural Labourer, Farm Servant, in charge of horses," Order 7; if in Mines, to the particular heading in Order 3, Sub-order 1. But all Carriers and Waggoners not so described are to be ticked to "Carrier, Waggoner (not farm)," in Order 6, Sub-order 1.

14. Labourers returned as working in any special manufacture or industry, e.g., Brewer's Labourer, Planter's Labourer, &c., are to be ticked to that special manufacture or industry.

The following are special headings :—

- Railway Labourer (not Railway Contractor's Labourer), Order 6, Sub-order 1.
 Dock Labourer, Wharf Labourer, Order 6, Sub-order 4.
 Coal Labourer, Order 6, Sub-order 3.
 Agricultural Labourer—distinguished as in charge of cattle, Order 3, Sub-order 1.
 Do, do, distinguished as in charge of horses, Order 7, Sub-order 1.
 Do, do, not otherwise distinguished, Order 3, Sub-order 1.
 Clay, Sand, Gravel, Chalk—Labourer, Order 3, Sub-order 1.
 Builder's Labourer, Order 12, Sub-order 1.
 Bricklayer's Labourer, Order 12, Sub-order 1.
 Mason's Labourer, Order 12, Sub-order 1.
 Plasterer's Labourer, Order 12, Sub-order 1.
 Railway Contractor's Labourer, Order 12, Sub-order 2.
 Road Labourer, Order 12, Sub-order 2.

Those returned simply as Labourer, or as General Labourer, are to be ticked General Labourer, in Order 22, Sub-order 4.

14. Workmen following any distinct Trade or Occupation having a Heading on the Abstract Sheet, but carrying it on in some manufactory, institution, or house of business, Government or other, are to be ticked to their own Trade or Occupation, and not to the manufactory to which they are temporarily, or even permanently, attached. For instance, a Blacksmith or a Bricklayer is to be ticked to that Heading, independently of the place in which he works.

15. Messengers, Errand Boys, Porters, Watchmen, if described as in the employment of the Post Office or other Government Department, are to be referred to the Heading "Civil Service (Messengers, &c.)," in Order 1, Sub-order 1.

Market Porters to "General Labourer," Order 22, Sub-order 4.

Railway Porters to "Railway Porters and Servants," Order 6, Sub-order 1.

Dock, Riverside, Waterside, Ships, Cows, Dairies—Porters to "Dock Labourer, Wharf Labourer," Order 6, Sub-order 4.

Cool Porters to "Coolhouses, Cool—Porters, Labourer," Order 6, Sub-order 3.

Domestic Porters to "Other Domestic Labour Servants," Order 4, Sub-order 1.

Hotel, &c., Porters to "Domestic Labour Servant in Hotel, &c.," Order 4, Sub-order 1.

Hospital and Institution Porters to "Hospital and Institution Service," Order 4, Sub-order 3.

Others should, as a rule, be placed under "Messenger, Porter, Watchman," Order 6, Sub-order 5.

17. Warehousemen are to be dealt with as follows:—

(a) When they appear to be simply accessories in some manufactory or house of business, being employed in its store department, they are to be ticked to the manufactory or industry to which they are attached.

(b) When the term "Warehouseman" appears to be simply another name for Dealer or shopkeeper, e.g., in "Fancy-goods Warehouseman," "Manchester Warehouseman," and the like, the tick must also follow the special kind of goods dealt in.

(c) When, however, persons are meant who keep places (or assist in the management and work of places) distinct from manufactories, and serving simply as store-keeping establishments, they are to be ticked to the heading "Warehousemen," Order 6, Sub-order 3.

18. Apprentices, Improvers, Journeymen, and Assistants are to be ticked to the Occupation to which they are apprenticed or in which they assist. If the Occupation is not directly stated, nor to be gathered indirectly from the Enumeration Book, they must be ticked to "Artisan, Mechanic, Apprentice (undef.)," in Order 22, Sub-order 4.

Similarly Contractors, Manufacturers, Managers, Superintendents, Inspectors, Overlookers, Overseers, Foremen, Gangers, and the like are to be ticked to the manufactory or industry in which they are employed, and when this is not specified, to "Contractor, Manufacturer, Manager, Superintendent (undef.)," in Order 22, Sub-order 3.

19. It very often happens that the same trade designation occurs in many perfectly distinct industries. Thus, in numerous distinct manufactories there are Spinnors, Dobbie-men, Weavers, Grinders, Finishers, Pickers, Fitters, Polishers, &c., &c. Strict directions were given that in all such cases the nature of the manufactory should be stated in the Enumeration Book. But, alas! it will often be found that the necessary addition has not been made. Sometimes the Abstractor will be able to supply the missing information himself, or to obtain it from the Superintendent, when, for instance, there is some one predominating or exclusive manufactory in the sub-district with which he is dealing; and in such cases he will tick accordingly. But when this resource fails him he must tick such vaguely designated workmen to the indefinite groups of workers in Order 18, Sub-order 5, if employed in Textile Manufacture, and to Order 22, Sub-order 4, if employed in other or unspecified manufactories.

20. Engine Drivers, Stokers, Firemen, Fitters, if stated to be employed on Railways, go to "Railway Engine Drivers, &c.," in Order 6, Sub-order 1; if stated to be employed on Ships, either to "Men of Navy," Order 5, Sub-order 2, or to "Marine Service," Order 6, Sub-order 3; if stated to be employed on Agricultural Machines to "Agricultural Machines—Proprietors, Attendants," Order 7, Sub-order 1; if stated to be employed in connection with "Electricity Supply," to the heading in Order 21, Sub-order 1; but all others go to "Engine Driver, Stoker, Fireman," in Order 22, Sub-order 4.

21. Clerks (and all others under Heading No. 37 on page 33) employed in any branch of commerce or industry are, as a general rule, to be ticked, not to that special branch, but to the heading "Commercial or Business Clerk," Order 3, Sub-order 1. The following exceptions must, however, be observed:—

Clerks in Civil Service and under Government to "Civil Service (Officers and Clerks)" (Order 1, Sub-order 1).

Law Clerks and Solicitors' Clerks to "Law Clerk" (Order 3, Sub-order 2).

Clerks in Banks to "Banker, Bank—Official, Clerk" (Order 3, Sub-order 3).

Clerks in Insurance Offices to "Life, Marine, Ship, &c., Insurance—Official, Clerk, &c." (Order 3, Sub-order 4).

Clerks engaged on instruments in Telegraph or Telephone Offices to "Telegraph, Telephone—Service" (Order 3, Sub-order 5).

Railway Clerks to "Railway Official or Clerk" (Order 4, Sub-order 1).

Clerk at Bookhall to "Publisher, Bookseller" (Order 17, Sub-order 2).

Clerk of Works to "Builder" (Order 12, Sub-order 1).

Navy Clerk, Admiral's Clerk, &c., to "Men of the Navy and Marines" (Order 2, Sub-order 2).

Army Clerk to "Soldiers and Non-commissioned Officers" (Order 2, Sub-order 1).

Book-keepers, Cashiers, Secretaries are to be considered as Clerks.

22. In different parts of the country the same name is sometimes used to designate different Occupations. For instance, "Wherryman" in Yorkshire often means a driver of a wherry or drep, whereas in other parts it means a man in charge of a canal boat. Extraneous names also are applied in different parts to one and the same Occupation. The man, for instance, who lays tiles or slates on a roof is, in London, &c., called a "Tiler" or "Slater," but in the western counties he is called a "Parchester." In some counties a Shoemaker is called "Cordwinder" or "Cordwainer"; a Brick-layer is sometimes called a "Brick Setter," and so on. The Clerk must be on his guard against errors from such confusion of terms, and in cases of doubt must apply to his Superintendent.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF OCCUPATIONS, SHOWING THE ORDER AND SUB-ORDER TO WHICH EACH IS TO BE REFERRED.

If an Occupation that is expressed by more than one word, such as "German Silver Filer," is not found under the first (German) it should be sought under such descriptive word.

It has been found necessary to include in the Classified and Alphabetical Lists many names which are purely local, and some which are scarcely more than nicknames, as they are used in the Returns.
